Why Jersey Cheese?

At Ropp Farms we raise only registered Jersey cows. Jerseys are a breed of cow that have a beautiful smaller frame, are butterscotch in color, and produce a much creamier milk. This rich milk is due to a consistently higher protein and calcium content produced specifically by Jersey cows.

Why Ropp Jersey Cheese?

For 10+ years the Ropp Family has dreamed of starting an on-farm cheese processing facility and retail store. The Ropp Family would like to share their knowledge and farm heritage to not only educate the public but also promote agriculture as a vital industry to American life.

How To Order?
